SALUTING THE TWELFTH BOY SCOUT WORLD JAMBOREE HELD AT FARRAGUT STATE PARK, IDAHO, U.S.A. THE DESIGN OF THE IMPRINTED STAMP IS BY STEVAN DOHANOS AND IS BASED ON THE JAMBOREE PATCH WHICH SHOWS THE FLEUR-DE-LIS EMBLEM OF SCOUTING AND BURAH PEAK, HIGHEST POINT IN IDAHO. A Plea for a raise
by Jack Kennedy
Dedicated to my
Mr. J. P. Kennedy

Chapter I
My recent allowance is 40¢. This I used for airplanes and other playthings of childhood but now I am a scout and I put away my childish things. Before I would spend 20¢ of my 40 allowance and in five minutes I would have empty pockets and nothing to gain and 20¢ to lose. When I am a scout I have to buy canteens, haversacks, blankets, searchlights, pouches, things that will last for years and I can always see it while I can't see a chocolate marshmallow sunday with vanilla ice cream and so I put in my plea for a raise of thirty cents for me to buy scout things and pay my own way (more or less).

Scouts from nearly one hundred nations and territories attended the encampment August 1-9, the first ever staged in the United States. The theme of the Jamboree was "For Friendship." A few of his stamps include the 6¢ Flag over the White House (1968), 13¢ Valley Forge (1977), $1.00 Airlift and many more.

Many cachets were issued to commemorate the Twelfth Boy Scout World Jamboree. On the following pages we have a few of the many issues.

AIR MAIL POSTAL CARD

The 6-cent air mail postal card saluting the Boy Scouts' XII World Jamboree will be first placed on sale on August 4, 1967, at Farragut State Park, Idaho, where Scouts from nearly one hundred nations and territories will be encamped.

This air mail card is valid for postage to Canada and Mexico, in addition to all points in the United States and its possessions. It may be used to send messages to other countries by affixing adhesive stamps to meet the required rate.

Stevan Dohanos, a member of the Citizens' Stamp Advisory Committee, designed the stamp on the card. It is based on the Jamboree patch which shows the fleur-de-lis emblem of Scouting and Borah Peak, the highest point in Idaho, the host State to the Scouts.

Ten million cards will be printed by the Government Printing Office in two runs on a two-color offset, press blending yellow, blue, red and black inks. Maximum blending occurs in the fleur-de-lis in which the bronze color is achieved by interspersing half-tone dots in the four inks.

Collectors desiring first day cancellations should send their orders to the Postmaster, Coeur d'Alene, Idaho 83814, plainly indicating the full name and address, INCLUDING ZIP CODE, with remittance to cover the cost, which is six cents each. The first day covers will be postmarked with a special cancellation reading "FARRAGUT STATE PARK, ID, AUGUST 4, 1967." The envelope to the Postmaster should be plainly endorsed "First Day Covers 6¢ Boy Scout Jamboree Card."

COMMEMORATIVE POSTAL CARD

Stevan Dohanos, a distinguished artist and member of the Citizens' Stamp Advisory Committee, based his design for the commemorative air mail postal card on the Jamboree patch which shows the fleur-de-lis emblem of Scouting and Borah Peak, the highest point in Idaho, host state to the Scouts.

Traditionally, the host nations of World Jamborees have issued postage stamps commemorating these events. The United States of America joins this group of nations with a salute to the 10 million Scouts around the globe as well as those Scouts gathered in this Jamboree "For Friendship."
